THE 40/40/20 RULE

No article on the keys to direct mail success would be complete without mentioning the 40/40/20 rule. In the 1960's, direct marketing pioneer, Ed Mayer, developed this simple rule for direct marketing campaigns.

1: THE MAILING LIST

If you're not presenting your product or service to the people who want and need it most, your campaign isn't going to be successful. In fact, the list is so important to the success of your campaign that modern marketers argue the 40/40/20 rule is more like 60/30/10.

2: THE OFFER

You may have the most fine-tuned list ever, but all the time and money spent on your list will be a waste if nobody responds to your direct mail. We're talking about the offer, and you'd better have a strong one if you plan on having any success with direct mail.

3: THE CREATIVE

While the list and offer are by far the most important components to focus on, the creative elements of your direct mail campaign also matter. After all, the creative is what ultimately ends up in your audience's hands. So, you need to make sure you at least understand the basics of good design, copy, imagery, and format selection.

HOW PRINT DESIGN HELPS YOUR BUSINESS

CORPORATE PRINT STATIONERY.

Branded company stationery design is important because it not only identifies the business, but it is also an effective marketing tool. Focus on great print stationery and build brand equity!

BROCHURE AND CATALOGUE DESIGN.

38% of consumers look first at products in catalogues before purchasing the product online. A large number of global brands still regard the catalogue as their premier sales tool.

DIRECT MAIL DESIGN.

Direct mail is still a stronghold. In fact, it's hard to think of a product or service that couldn't be promoted through strategic direct mail design and marketing. A staggering 50% of consumers say print mail is more personal than the Internet. Being personal is still supremely important in marketing – welcome to Direct Mail.

MARKETING PRINT DESIGN.

Well designed marketing print design can mean the difference between a lost lead & a loyal life-long customer. Businesses that generate marketing create 67% more leads than those that don't.

HOW BRAND CONSISTENCY HELPS YOUR BUSINESS

GENERATES FAMILIARITY.

Brand awareness is name recognition. But being known is not the same as being known for something. In order to be a powerful brand, build brand familiarity: let your customers and potential customers know who you are, what you offer, why you offer this.

PURSUES CUT THROUGH.

The concept in brand marketing titled “cut-through” is achieved via consistency. A brand with a presence stands out and is noticed within a crowded market. Having cut-through is a highly desirable quality for a brand to have, and over time it builds brand equity.

BECOME A COMPETITOR

A brand in competition is a healthy one. It means it's in market, working and communicating. If a brand is not competing it's not doing its job as an autonomous sales agent for the business it's representing.

GENERATES EQUITY AND VALUE

Ensuring a brand is consistent throughout its messaging, creative, positioning and in-market activities will build brand equity fast. And a brand with equity can offer more value to its customers and the business itself.

HOW A MANAGED BRAND HELPS YOUR BUSINESS

SERVICE AND NURTURE INVESTMENTS.

There's far greater ROI in keeping an existing customer than recruiting a new one, and a strong brand idea can optimize your marketing budget. Managing your brand will secure communication channels and strategies, all driven by time and money.

REAFFIRMS BRAND PROMISES.

Your brand works as a glue, binding customers to your brand so they stay with you, grow with you, and tell others about your brand. It helps you identify your best customers and to direct special efforts against them.

ENGAGES THE TEAM

Your brand works as a “North Star” that you're employees follow. As a result, employees feel more engaged, work harder for your brand's success, and become great ambassadors for your brand.

CREATES EFFICIENCY IN MARKETING

A clearly articulated brand with identified assets and parts makes marketing more efficient and effective. Marketing needs to focus on selling brand or products and service. Once this is made clear, the focus can simply be on strategy and performance.

EVENT SIGNAGE

BRAND: RED BULL

LAUNCH!

EVENT SIGNAGE

THE BRIEF

Red Bull approached COG Print with a brief to deliver the signage for the Red Bull Cliff Diving World Series. A neat, clear and concise delivery of event and wayfinding signage was required by the Red Bull brand and their international cliff diving event at the Hawkesbury. At a high level the wayfinding and event signage solutions for the Red Bull Cliff Diving World Series required strict adherence to the brand guidelines and corporate identity.

ABOUT THE BRAND & BUSINESS

Red Bull is an energy drink sold, an Austrian company created in 1987. Red Bull has the highest market share of any energy drink in the world, with 6.790 billion cans sold in a year.

THE RESULTS

Huge attendance under bright blue sunny skies... Success! Elite cliff divers turned up to compete by diving from up to 27m in the most respected World Series Diving Event in the world. Divers jumped from a platform at a height ranging from 26–28 m (85–92 ft). The Hawkesbury event was one of a limited number of venues around the globe, and with record attendance and media attention COG Print were proud to have played part in a Red Bull Global event.
