LET'S GROW!

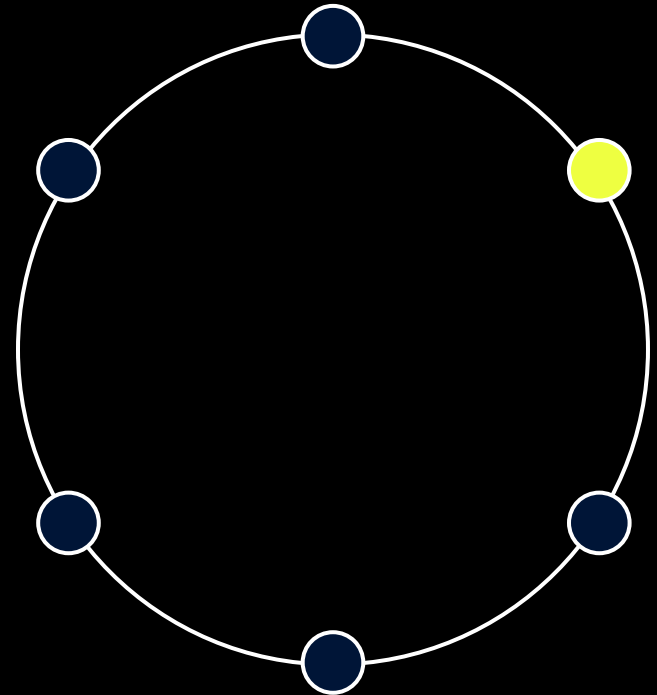

Short on Time

We know your days move quickly into weeks.
Time management has always been key for us.

Justifiably we've spent years developing automation solutions for small business. By using software and workflow strategies we create more time for people.

Outsource the difficult time consuming tasks to COG Branding. While you work in the business, we'll be swiftly executing saving you time and money.

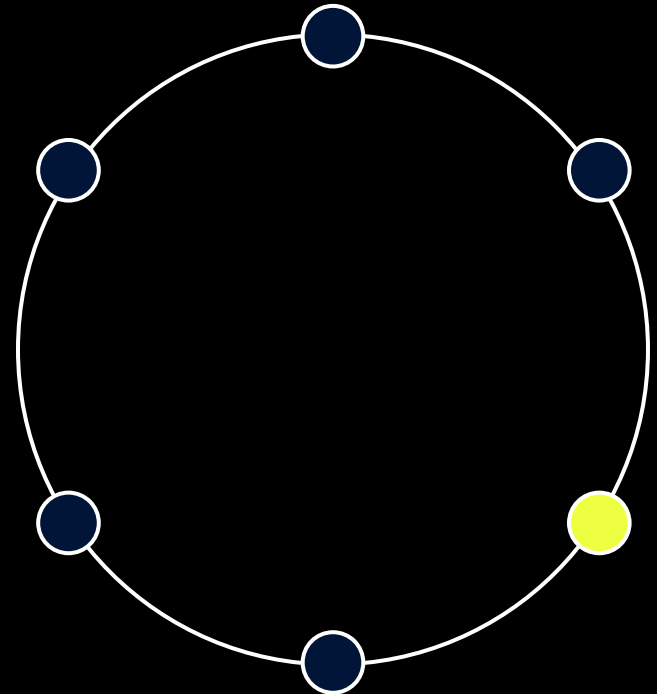

Marketing

Developing effective marketing strategies alone can be challenging.

COG Branding's sophisticated methodologies are proven to drive success throughout the complex ecosystems of digital and analogue marketing to great effect.

We ensure your brand story reaches your target audience so they take action on your offer.

Our dynamic product suite activates your messages in market across today's core marketing disciplines.

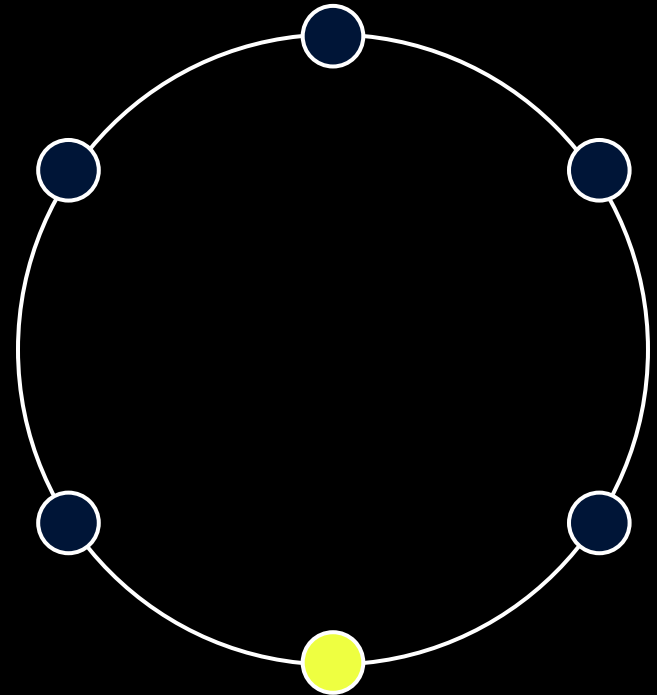

Financial Management

With great eCommerce support your financial management can be planned, accurate and fast.

Our eCommerce solutions increase the accuracy of your company numbers, providing insights valuable to decision making, planning and identifying new opportunities.

Our goal is to increase the financial literacy of your business so you remain competitive and accurate.

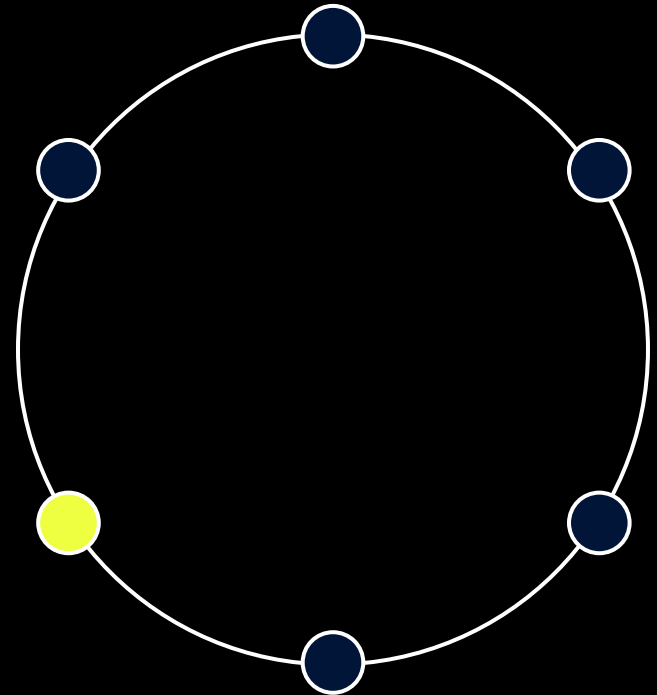

Technology

Small business struggles to onboard new technology. Here COG Branding becomes very useful to your operations.

Our IT team provide email, domain, web hosting and workflow management solutions.

We're a reliable at-call support team driving small business automation.

Remain competitive via optimal error-free software that manages people and time.

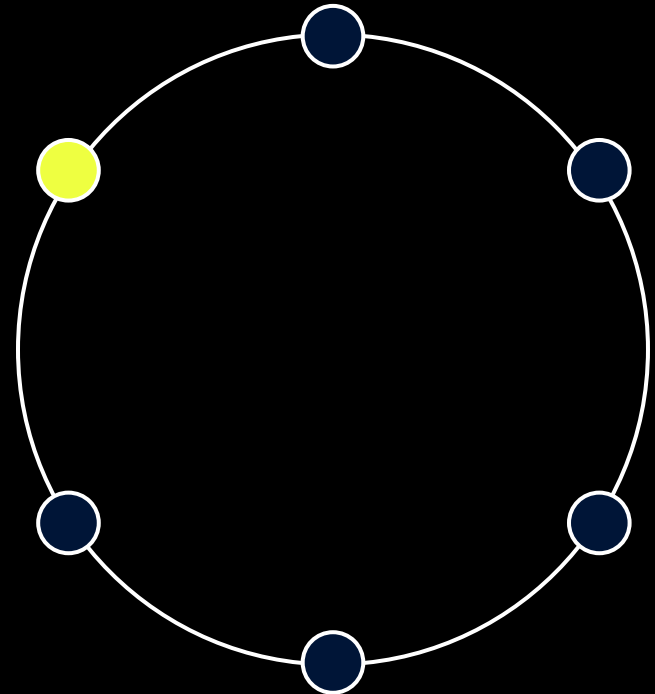

Increased Competition

Like most small business you're likely in an increasingly competitive environment with a broken marketing ecosystem.

Most are not competing, simply just making up the numbers. COG Branding will design you a sustainable strategy within an ecosystem that increases brand strength and performance.

Here your business will become a contender, a true market competitor.

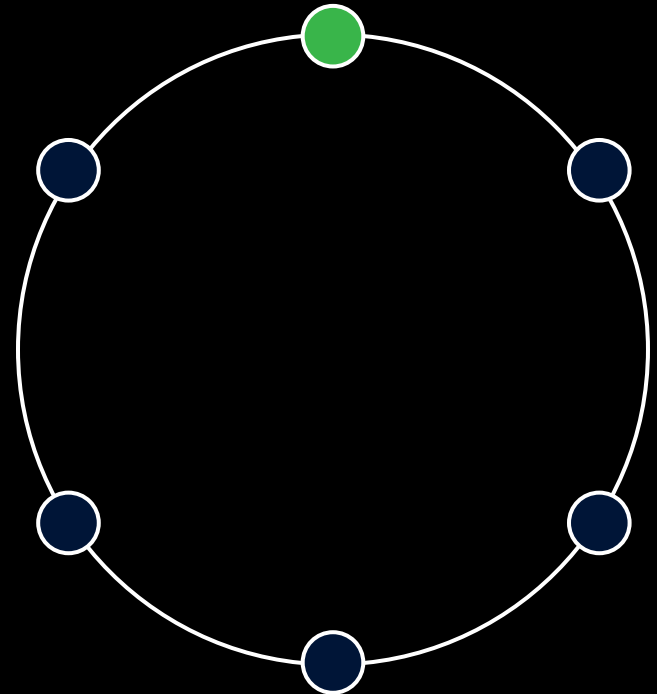

People Management

Managing people is one of the toughest areas for small business.

A clever hybrid of technology and the existing human touch works wonders.

With a synergy between your people and ours we can develop bespoke solutions in our increasingly challenging world that assist the human resource take your business into the future.

CHAPTER 3

WE OFFER AFFORDABLE VALUE

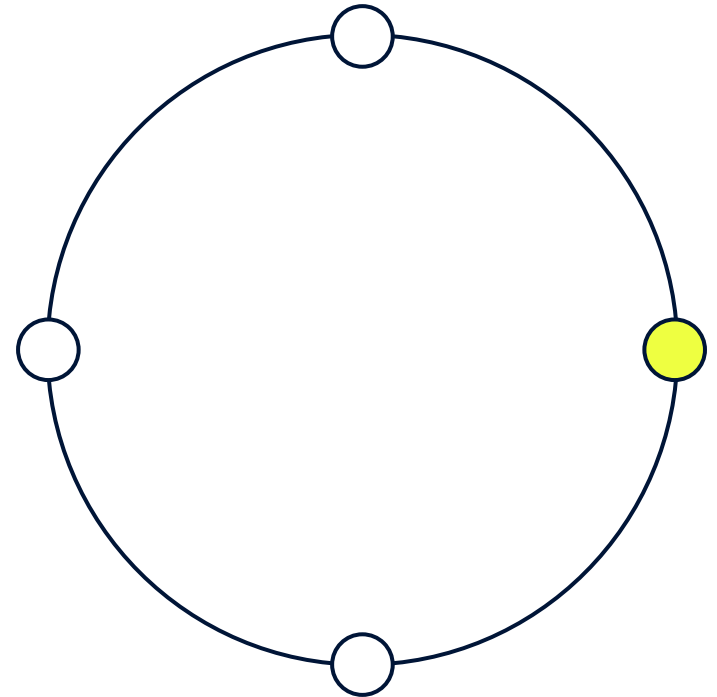

Connect Brand to Business

Your customers respond to your brand emotionally, often before any logical evaluation has been done towards your offer.

Here's why we're focused on connecting brand to business – it's the start of a sustainable approach to brand marketing.

Strong brands perform as autonomous sales agents – building brand, growing business.

This unique COG Branding method is market proven, high value and an affordable opportunity for your business.

CHAPTER 3

WE OFFER AFFORDABLE VALUE

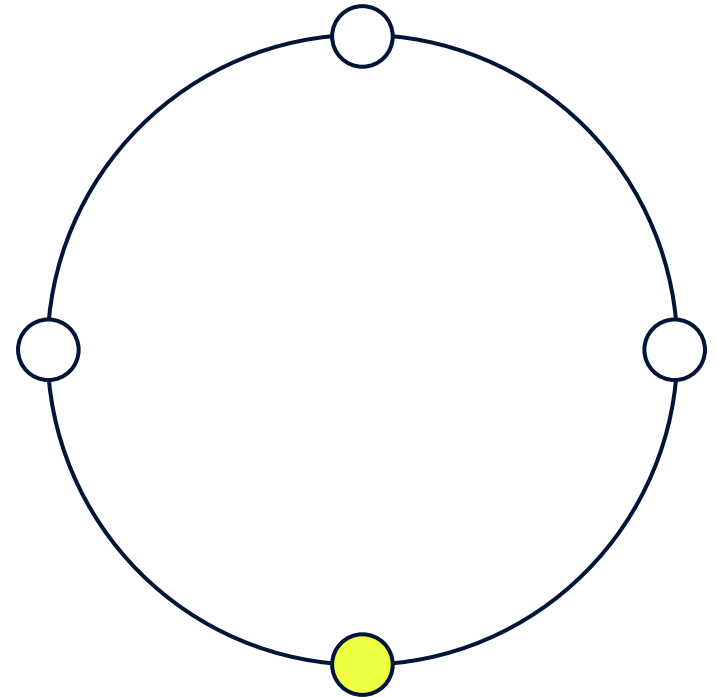

Owned Media First. (Paid Second).

Your business should be leveraging every dollar it spends on marketing.

An Owned Media strategy will support a longer term sustainable approach, avoiding Paid Marketing middlemen built in as the sole dependency that generate leads and acquire customers.

Our focus is for your brand to communicate directly to your audience at zero cost, only leveraging Paid Media with short term promotions when required.

We're masters at this balance and can execute it for you to great effect.

CHAPTER 3

WE OFFER AFFORDABLE VALUE

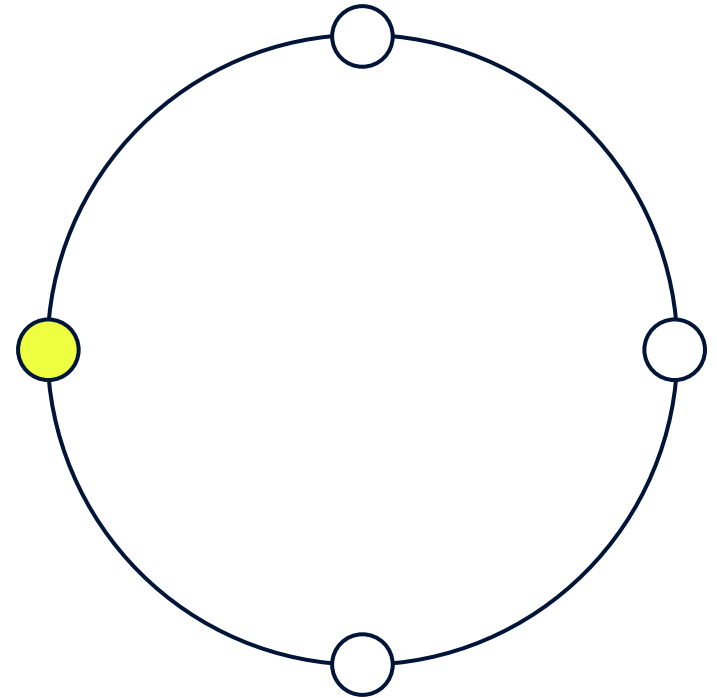

Guided by Insights

Your brands truths are buried in your analytics, though it's likely you can't access this information.

COG Branding wants your business to use data to make informed decisions from truth insights.

We optimise your data points and create simple reporting so your business can see.

Operating from factual information generates the best returns on your marketing investments.

CHAPTER 3

WE OFFER AFFORDABLE VALUE

One Stop Shop

Build brand equity, market from owned media, and make informed decisions using data.

Growth and performance will become your business habit.

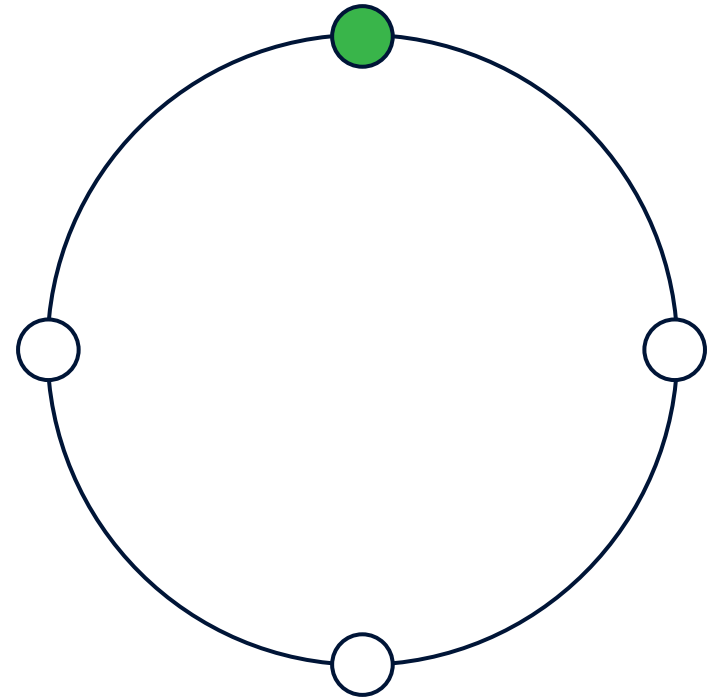

COG Branding is a proven full service brand marketing agency with a dynamic offer, servicing Australian business for over a decade.

Our goal is your survival, growth and performance.
